RIBBONERS AT

Proceedings of the Second Day of the Women's Temperance Gonvention.

THE ORDER OF EXERCISES

the Illustrious Colored Leader, Among the Workers of the Day-Reports Upon Temperance Legis-Lation-Other Addresses of the Occasion special to the Scranton Tribune.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 5.-Of course there had to be one rainy day after three so balmy, bright, and favorable for the gathering of "white-ribboners," But despite the steady downpour the great theater was again crowded to the third gailery, each state banner sheltering its regular quota of county delegates.

The early prayer meeting at the Foundry M. E. church, led by Mrs. G. M. Hammer, national evangelist, was reported as being a very helpful opening for the day.

At 9:30 the convention was called to order with the hearty singing of "Onward, Christian Soldier," followed a fervent prayer by Mrs. Booker T. Washington, whose fame is not all derived from her illustrious husdent of Alabama W. C. T. U., Miss Clara Parrish, general " retary, gave a most entertaining report of the work of the young women's branch, considered one of the most hopeful features of the W. C. T. U. work, giving promise, as it does, of workers being prepared to ably fill responsible places that will soon be vacant.

The Loyal Legion branch was reported by Mrs. Helen G. Rice, of Massachusetts, in a most unique manner. and was applauded frequently. It "It came to pass in the days of Lillian the Just and Anna the Wise, in the reign of McKinley the Upright, who suleth over a great land from ocean unto ocean, and even to regions beyond, that the Women's Christian Temperance Union waxed strong, and met in its seven-and-twentieth year at the capital city of the great nation."

On Arbitration.

The report on peace and international arbitration was given by Mrs. Hannah J. Bailey, of Maine. The report on franchise, by Marie C. Brehm, of Illinois, was full of stirring facts and incidents Illustrating the good done by women where they are allowed to excreise that privilege.

The reporter on temperance legislation, Mrs. Margaret D. Ellis, of New Jersey, was received with applause amounting to an ovation. She stated that a prominent congressman had said that if the women were ever as much In earnest about the final triumph of prohibition as they were about excluding Brigham Roberts from congress, it would be a settled fact. Mrs. Greenwood presided over the evangelistic hour, which was devoted ATTRACTIONS FOR THE WEEK. to the topic of "Prayer," consisting of scores of brief testimonies, and closing with a most beautiful noontide prayer by Miss Leitch, Ceylon missionary.

The afternoon session began with the singing of the hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," after which the clergymen of Washington, seated in a body on the platform, were presented to the audience, who arose and waved a salute at each introduction.

Rev. Mr. Naytor, a Washington Methodist Episcopal pastor, addressed the convention as one who, in the name of the Methodist Episcopal churches of the city, acknowledged the achievements of the Women's Christian Temperance union during the last half century. He said, in brief, that the society was writing history, and its work would be inseparably connected with the record of the nation's progress.

"Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was sung heartly, the presence of representatives of so many denominations giving it great significance. Miss Edith Austin Shrigley, of Pennsylvania, then spoke for ten minutes on the work of the flower mission, a talk full of the most graceful and poetical thoughts on the importance of the love of nature in education, and the uplifting influence of the love of flowers.

The Cuban Teachers.

An interesting fact was the presentation of a large and choice bouquet of Women who suffer from inflammation, ulceration, female weakness, or nervous diseases caused by disease of the wom-anly organs will find a complete cure by the use of "Favorite Prescription."

"Several years ago I suffered severely from female weakness, prolapsus, and menorthagia, and used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with splendid effect." writes Fannie Shelton, of Washington, Iowa. "Glad I have not needed it for a few years past, but if I should have any return of the old troable would surely try 'Fasorite Prescription.' I have recommended it to a number of my lady friends. I always tell them to try a bottle and if they are not benefited by it I will pay for the medicine. In every case they have spoken in praise of it."

flowers to each Cuban teacher before their departure for their native land. This attention they declared to be one WASHINGTON of the most grateful of the many they had received in the United States, and the letters W. C. T. U. will always mean to them "fragrance and loving welcome in a strange land."

Mrs. Alice Gordon Gulick, president of the Women's Christian Temperance union of Spain, pleaded for sympathy for that nation, saying: "While cold water is the favorite commodity of our society, do not pour it on the cause of Spain, that sad, old country." The motto of the Spanish Women's Christian Temperance union is "For God and the Neglected Homes of Spain."

Mrs. Wiggins, of Canada, spoke on the Women's Christian Temperance union work. She stated that she had seen a missionary map on which Can-Mrs. Booker T. Washington, Wife of ada was marked "heathen," but she said that if the question of temperance were considered there would be no dark shade on their map, as the consump-tion of alcoholic beverages was less there than any other civilized nation. according to population. She closed by saying aptly that ro reciprocity laws could prevent their carrying home love and cheer obtained at the convention, and no alien labor laws could prevent working together.

Mrs. La Fevre spoke for France, one fact furnished by the bureau of statistics being that the greatest cause of lunacy in France is strong drink. Bishop Hartsock, of Africa, received great applau e as he took the platform. He said that he had been always blessed by the Women's Christian Temperance union, as his mother, though now 85 years of age, was still an active member, and he had eight sisters. all white ribbon women. He made a most fervent appeal for the native African women as needing the help of her white sisters to escape from the bondage of her condition.

Let us turn for a short time from the convention hall to the brilliant reception given by ex-Senator and Mrs. Henderson in another part of the city, to the delegates and reporters attending the meetings. At 4.30 p. m. cabs, hurdles and electric vehicles were lined up outside the magnificent mansion, which stood on a commanding eminence, a veritable castle of dark red sandstone with many turrets of antique design. the base of its terraced lawn rose heavy walls of the same material with like turrets at intervals.

Two large reception rooms and two drawing rooms, crowded with treasures of art, were thrown open to the delegates. In one of the former Mrs. Henderson received, in the other unfermented wine was served to the temperance guests.

The latter was not less attractive containing some masterpieces that would be prized in any art gallery. A grand old lion on the desert sands, by Gerome; two magnificent sea scenes, by Richards; one sunrise on the ocean, the other darkness on the deep and three Venice scenes, presenting from different points of view the Palace of the Doges and the Bridge of Sighs. were notable, but the climax was an enormous painting of Cleopatra voluptuously reclining while two slaves made music which was apparently soothing her to slumber. Through a vista of curtains a glimpse of minarets and the blue waters of the Mediterranean at night could be seen, but the exquisite form and face held the eye, the hair being the red-gold of tradition Oriana M. Academy of Music.

All Week-The Ideals in repettoire, Gaiety.

Last Three Days "The Gay Butterfly,"

"The Ideals" continue to draw well at the Academy of Music. Vesterday at each performance, matinee and evening, the house was well filled. At the matinee yeaterday "Miss Blythe of Duluth" was presented, and in the evening Willard Lee's great sensational comedy dramwas produced. The scene effects displayed in respect and the manner in which this play staged by the Himmelein company, "The reflects much credit on the management. The bill for this atternoon is a repetition of last night's, "In the Heart of the Storm." To hight "A Flaming Million" will be produced.

"Way Down East."

The novel snow storm in the production of 'Way Down East' which is to be given at the Lyreum tonight, tomorrow night and Satur day afternoon, is worked by electricity. The About ten feet above the floor and just at the stage right of the floor are erected appliances so placed that the wind causes the air to take a sort of a whirliging course down past the door and the window. The papers are dropped out of a box, while salt goes from cylinders into this wind. The beautiful snow beats against the window and when the door is opened the wind and the snow whistles chill in the door

Roe and Fenberg Company.

The Roe and Fenberg company will be at the Academy of Music all next week in a repertoire of New York successes. It can be said without fear of contradiction that this combination is the best of any one playing at popular prices The plays are among the best known on the stage and are ones of merit, while the company is fully capable of presenting them.

The opening play is Hal Red's great success, "Roanoke." The other plays to be presented during the week are as follows: "Knobs o' Tennessee," "After the War." "Bar Harbo." "De. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." "Band of Cain." "A

The Gay Butterflies. The "Gay Butterflies" elicited the following criticism from the Boston Post, upon their apearance in that city last week

The Gay Butterflies Extravaganza company began a week's engagement at the Palace theater yesterday and delighted two large audiences at the opening performances. The show is bright and lively, and will please all who like good burlesque and specialty. The ensemble is first in-troduced in a merry skit called 'Mistaken Identity,' and later in a laughable burlesque en-titled Doing the Rounds of Gay Parce,' a satire on the social fads of the giddy French capital Both pieces are staged with new and beautiful settings, while the costumes are unique and gorgeous. During the action of the burlesque there are plenty of good specialties by the talented nembers of the company. The terpsichorean numbers by the girls are all the latest songs in a charming manner; Barth and Fleming are clever in a grotesque and ec-centric comedy act; Leslie and Curdy have a budget of new songs which abounds in witty hits: Weston and Stapleton present a laughable consely sketch entitled "An Ambitious Youth." and Tenly and Simonds are funny in an Irish act. A novelty on the bill is the dancing act by the Metweef duo, Russian dancers, who present one of the most novel terpsichorean acts ever seen here. They also introduce some excellent acro-batic work. The show delighted all at the opening performances at the Palace.

This company appears at the Gaiety for the next three days, opening wath a matince this

Commencing Monday evening, Dec. 10, the LaPorte Comedy company will fill a special engagement at the Opera house for three nights, presenting special attractions. The strike of the glass cutters, which has been on for the past six months. was declared off on Monday last. A number of the cutters who remained in Honesdale have returned to their old places. Others will not be employed and must find employment elsewhere. A large number of the cutters had atready secured work in other towns. Although the strike was carried on quietly, it meant a loss of over $20,000 in wages, and some of the strikers who had homes here must leave them. Notwithstanding the severe storm of Thursday evening, the opera house was filled with people to witness "Down on the Farm," a play chuck full of fun. THE MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 5.-To-day's market somewhat reversed the speculative position of yesterday. The early part of the day showed a continuance or the reactionary tendency. The proessional traders continued and sold stocks short but it became obvious during the course of the day that there was no urgent pressure to liquidate. The decline in prices brought no large offerings and the bears were disinclined on this account to purch se their campaign. Consequently they bought to cover their contracts and turned the market upwards. The recovery was helped by strength in a few stocks. The strong points in to-day's market were amongst the low priced minor stocks. the Eries, Peoria and Eastern, the Wabash stocks, the St. Joe & Grand Island stocks and others of that class being conspicuous. Total sales, 654,-496 shares.

The bond market was rather active. Total sales, par value, $4,095,000. United States refunding 2s de-clined 1-8 and the 2s and 5s 1-4 per ent on the last call.
